

Day 1

Session 1: Electoral Violence

9:00 - 10:00

- ◆ Felix Haass - The Political Effects of Witnessing State Atrocities: Evidence from the Nazi Death Marches
 - Discussant: Krzysztof Krakowski
- ◆ Neeraj Prasad - Violence as an Electoral Strategy: Booth-Level Evidence from West Bengal, India
 - Discussant: Felix Schulte

Session 2: Movement Support and Mobilization

10:15 - 11:45

- ◆ Belen Gonzalez - The effect of hunger strikes on public support for opposition movements
 - Discussant: Miceal Canavan
- ◆ Miceal Canavan - Violence begets violence: Violent riots increase support for political violence, but only among co-partisans
 - Discussant: Frederik Gremler

Frederik Gremler - Posting to be First Past the Post? When and How the Electoral Context Influences Ethnic Party Identity Appeal Usage

- ◆
 - Discussant: Belen Gonzalez

11:45 - 13:00 Lunch break

Session 3: Parallel Sessions

13.00 - 14.30

3A: Conflict Prediction

- ◆ Sonja Häffner - Improving Conflict Prediction Models with Domain Specific Dictionaries for Newspaper Articles
 - Discussant: Simon Polichinel von der Maase
- ◆ Christian Oswald - Margin of (t)error: Predicting terrorism in civil conflicts for theory building and improvement
 - Discussant: Sonja Häffner
- ◆ Simon Polichinel von der Maase - ConflictNet 1.0 - A probabilistic recurrent Unet for conflict forecasting
 - Discussant: Christian Oswald

3B: Interstate Cooperation and Conflict

- ◆ Adam Scharpf - The Targeting Logic of Soft Power: Evidence from Kissinger's International Seminar
 - Discussant: Tobias Risse
- ◆ Tobias Risse - Regime Type and State Support for Arms Control
 - Discussant: Julian Walterskirchen
- ◆ Julian Walterskirchen - Do alliances deter civil conflict? Assessing the effect of military alliances on the onset of intrastate violence.
 - Discussant: Adam Scharpf

Session 4: Qualitative methods and data

14:45 - 16:15

- ◆ Stephanie Jansch - What We Thought We Know - Reflections on Knowledge Production before Entering "The Field"
 - Discussant: Rosario Figari Layus
- ◆ Daniel Gomez Uribe - Memory in war zones: Memory workshops as a method to build wartime experiences
 - Discussant: Julia Leib
- ◆ Rosario Figari Layus - Online or face to face? Methodological challenges and advantages of conducting digital fieldwork in context of conflict and violence
 - Discussant: Stephanie Jansch

Business meeting

16:15 -16:45

Day 2

Session 1: The Effect of the Removal of Opposition Leaders

9:00-10:00

- ◆ Felix Schulte - Repression and Backlash Protests – Why Leader Arrests Backfire
 - Discussant: Felix Haass
- ◆ Krzysztof Krakowski - Does Killing Opposition Elites Prevent Anti-Regime Protests? Evidence from post-World War II Poland
 - Discussant: Neeraj Prasad

Session 2: Parallel Sessions

10:15 – 11:45

2A: Protest Escalation and Security Force Behavior

2B: Conflict Processes

- ◆ Christoph Dworschak - Security Force Behavior and Strategies of Resistance
 - Discussant: Mai Van Tran
- ◆ Mai Van Tran - Provoking civilian disruption towards popular protests: The role of counter-mobilization strategies by Myanmar military
 - Discussant: Christoph Dworschak
- ◆ Nadine O'Shea - Two sides of the same coin? The impact of Private Military and Security Companies (PMSCs) on civilian victimization by governments and insurgents
 - Discussant: Amelie Freiberg
- ◆ Henrique Garbino - Challenging the “poor man’s weapon” predication: varying levels of restraint in irregular and conventional warfare
 - Discussant: Nadine O'Shea
- ◆ Amelie Freiberg - Conflict-related sexual violence: Understanding the influence of rebels’ individual-level characteristics on strategies of combatant socialization
 - Discussant: Henrique Garbino

11:45 – 13:00 Lunch break

Session 3: Parallel Sessions

13.00 – 14.00

3A: Regime Stability and Human Rights

3B: Inequality and redistribution

- ◆ Svend-Erik Skaaning - Hybrid Regimes and Human Right Violations
 - Discussant: Nils Weidmann
- ◆ Nils Weidmann - From Bad to Worse? How Protest Escalates to Armed Conflict in Autocracies
 - Discussant: Svend-Erik Skaaning
- ◆ Gerlinde Theunissen - Local Inequality, Co-ethnicity, and Perceived Economic Status
 - Discussant: Casper Sakstrup
- ◆ Casper Sakstrup - Group-based injustice motivates, whereas group-based inequality dissuades, political violence
 - Discussant: Gerlinde Theunissen

Session 5: Quantitative Conflict and Peace Datasets

14:15 – 15:45

- ◆ Julia Palik - Laying Down Weapons after Conflict: Introducing the Disarmament in intrastate Peace Agreements (DISARM PA) dataset
 - Discussant: Clara Neupert-Wentz
- ◆ Clara Neupert-Wentz - According to Whom? A Comparison of Conflict Data Across Time and Space
 - Discussant: Nils Weidmann
- ◆ Wolfgang Schreiber - The Missing Information in Databases: Internationalized Intrastate Conflicts and Supporting Non-State Actors

- Discussant: Julia Palik